

Reagan Bills

INTERESTS: CAMPING | FISHING | HUNTING | FASHION

Age: 13

Hometown: Johnstown, PA

POWER PITCHING TO A CHAMPIONSHIP

Highlights, on the Little League Intl. Facebook page, that capture Reagan's dominance during the team's run to the World Series Championship. Watch

MUST WATCH-AS FEATURED ON ESPN

During this interview with ESPN's Jess Sims, hosted on Facebook Reels, Reagan displays her personality and confidence and reflects upon the impact of her team's Little World Series Championship on her community. Watch

INSPIRING OTHER YOUNG ATHLETES

Reagan discusses what fuels her "passion for pitching" during her interview with a well-known young sports journalist, who has interviewed numerous famous athletes and celebrities. Watch

Little League World Series MVP

Top Achievements

- Named MVP of the Little League Softball World Series, leading the Johnstown team to Pennsylvania's first Little League Softball World Series title since 1978.
- Threw every inning of every game for Johnstown's five games to the championship without allowing a single run—30 shutout innings, striking out a tournament-best 51 batters while allowing only 12 hits and 8 walks.
- Set a tournament record with 15 strikeouts in a single game in the first round against Connecticut.
- In the championship game vs. Indiana, she delivered a 105-pitch one-hitter with 7 strikeouts, and drove in the only run of the game.

"I'm standing here today because my community believed in me. Sports gave me the chance to grow as an athlete and as a person. In Johnstown, when girls play, communities rise. I hope every girl in Pennsylvania has the same chance to play, dream, and represent her hometown."

—Reagan Bills, in a letter to Pennsylvania Governor Josh Shapiro a quote as part of her involvement in the Johnstown, PA's Community Revitalization Through Sports Program.

See all recent posts about Reagan